As a final not for this week, this is week 2 that I have been doing this newsletter. I know there is plenty of room for improvement and I will be learning a lot from your feedback and replies. I hope to make this weekly message look more visually appealing in the coming weeks and month and I hope the content focuses more on what you like as I find that out. Please continue to send fliers and information about the events and promotions you have going on. One small change we will be implementing next week, each member will be limited to one inclusion per month for promotions at their business. This limit will not be applied to events. They will be promoted for up to 2 weeks leading up to them. However, all submissions must be received by Friday to be considered for inclusion. Also, if you wish to not receive this weekly message, please email me or call me at there address/number below.

Thank you all and have a great week!
