

What's New at the Wetzel County Chamber of Commerce – July 15, 2019

State of the County Breakfast

Last Thursday, the Wetzel County Chamber of Commerce and Genesis HealthCare teamed up to present the State of Wetzel County Breakfast. Numerous business leaders, elected officials and concerned citizens turned out to hear speakers share presentations on some of the hottest topics facing the region, including board band expansion, the education system and the future of the fossil fuel industry in our area. All this was done while enjoying a wonderful breakfast prepared by the Genesis staff! The State of Tyler County Breakfast is just over the horizon, scheduled for August 23rd.

Pay it Forward

Our Pay it Forward event is scheduled for July 29th, but the deadline for non-profits to apply is July 18th (That's this Thursday!). So, if you are a member of a non-profit group that could use a share of the $3500 in prizes we have raised so far, then make sure you click on the link below, read the complete rules and fill out the application and get it back to use soon!

Home Rule in New Martinsville

Wednesday, July 17th, the New Martinsville City Council will be having a public forum followed by a first reading concerning the home rule application they will be filing. If you have questions or concerns about home rule and what it can mean to the community, then you should attend this meeting at 7:00 PM

There will be no business after Hours this week. The next one will be sometime in August. The exact date and time are to be announced.

Finally, Carla and I made it into the Informer this week! She is the short one. You can read the article in the latest issue, and you can pick up that issue for free right here in the chamber office!

If you have any upcoming events or announcements you would like to share in this message, please let me know by next Friday and I can include them in the next issue. Also, I am always happy to get any feedback, positive or negative.
