

Happy Monday Morning!

(Overview)

Summer is always busy and this one is no exception. Looking at the calendar for the rest of the month, I see we have a Business After Hours at Wesbanco on July 18th at 5:30, The State of the County Breakfast, and our annual Pay it Forward event. The CVB will be hosting a Blueprint Community event and S&S Jewelry will be having a 50th anniversary event for founder Steve Hunt. We also have meetings here at the Chamber we have 3 meetings spread over the next three weekends. Keep reading to learn all about these events and more!

(Davison Audiology)

Let's start off by introducing this week's Chamber Focus Member, Davison Audiology:

"Davison Audiology provides professional hearing health care services. Our hospital-based clinics offer the highest level of professional hearing services in a hospital office setting. We are certified audiologists with 70 years of combined experience at 6 convenient locations. Davison Audiology has established associations with high-quality manufacturers who provide hearing aids and other assistive listening devices. If you suspect a hearing loss, or are experiencing ringing in the ears, then you should schedule an appointment at one of our locations to meet with a licensed, certified audiologist. Visit our website (<http://davisonaudiology.com/>), Facebook (<https://www.facebook.com/Davison-Audiology-391467170913791/>), or call (740) 695-1058 for more information.

Davison Audiology also owns Audiology Benefits Network LLC, a hearing aid savings plan offered to employers for their employees. This no cost option for industry and business offers significant savings to employees for hearing related services including hearing aids."

(State of Co. Bfast)

The Wetzel County Chamber of Commerce and Genesis HealthCare Center in New Martinsville will be teaming up to present the State of the County Breakfast at 7:30 AM on Thursday July 11th. The breakfast is an opportunity to hear from influential policy makers within the community about issues affecting Wetzel County and the surrounding area. Speakers this year will include Charles Zelek, Senior Economist with the U.S. Department of Energy, Wetzel County Commissioner Larry Lemon, Wetzel County Schools superintendent Ed Toman, Jessicah Cross, Field Rep. for Senator Capito, and a representative for the U.S. Army Corp. of Engineers. Admission to the breakfast is open to the public, but seating is extremely limited. It will be held at Genesis HealthCare's New Martinsville Facility at 22 Russell Ave. Those interested in attending can RSVP by calling the Wetzel Co. Chamber of Commerce, (304) 455-3825. Admission for the event is $10 and breakfast will be served before the speakers begin.

(Pay it forward)

We are still looking for non-profit organizations to enter our Pay it Forward event on July 29th. Pay it Forward is an opportunity for non-profits to present what they do to an audience which then votes to pick a winner to get donated money from the community. There is still a chance to donate to this event as well. If your organization would like to contribute, please contact the chamber office at (304)

455-3825. If you are a member of a non-profit and would like a chance a taking home some of the prize money, click this link to read the rules and download an application;

(Blueprint)

Do you have a vision for the future of Wetzel County? Would you like to meet others with the same passion? What would it be like to be a part of a team, directing the future of our community? July 10th, 6PM at the Lewis Wetzel Family Center, is your chance to start making your dreams a reality. It's time to stop setting around lamenting about what you don't like, and start making Wetzel County the place you know it can be. To RSVP for this event, Email Sandy Hunt: hunt1953@gmail.com . (Sandy, count this as Carla and I RSVPing)

(S&S)

S&S Jewelry will be having a 50th Annaversary celebration for found, Steve Hunt. Steve started working in the business way back in 1969 and Lily's Crown Jewelers and has been doing it ever since. Stop in, July 27th, congratulate Steve and take advantage of the hospitality the S&S has to offer.

(3 Meetings 3 Wed)

Finally, we have meetings at 8 AM for the next 3 weeks, so if you love meetings, the chamber is the place for you! This Wednesday at 8 AM, the Events and Special Programs (ESP) Committee meets here at the office to help plan for all the event you just read about. Next Wednesday (July 17th) will be our rescheduled Executive Committee meeting. Then, the big one on July 24th, the Board of Director meeting, always a good time for everyone.

If there is anything you think might be a good addition to this newsletter for next week, please let me know. You can send your item to Office@WetzelCountyChamber.com by Friday at 3PM. Any other feedback at the same address.

Thank you and have a great week!
